What is a right way to analysis the pictures?

Hi,

I want to build a online server that takes the picture and analysis it then return some results from a database.

Is this doable, what language/platform would you recommend? I know this is hard... Please help me to find out a way to do it.

Thanks